ptutin@streetsweb.co.uk

Paul, who became the firm's Managing Partner in July 2003, qualified as a Chartered Accountant in May 1988. Paul has a wealth of experience as a general practitioner, advising on all aspects of accounting, taxation and investment but with a strong auditing bias. His client base encompasses plcs, international private groups, foreign companies, professional firms and family companies.

Alan Blake
Partner
ablake@streetsweb.co.uk

Alan has particular expertise in providing business development advice for owner managed businesses. His experience with raising finance, dealing with company acquisitions and company disposals is particularly valuable to clients. Alan has also worked extensively with family businesses and has considerable experience in the areas of corporate and personal taxation, audit and accountancy services.

Paul Brophy
Tax Partner
pbrophy@streetsweb.co.uk

After originally training in the audit and accounts department for five years Paul moved to the tax team and qualified as a Chartered Tax Adviser in 1997. Paul deals with technical queries and has a wide experience in all taxes. Paul particularly provides advice for wealthy individuals in the areas of inheritance tax and capital gains tax.

Peter Chandler
Partner
pchandler@streetsweb.co.uk

Peter has been helping local businesses with their financial affairs for over 30 years, covering a wide spectrum of businesses including construction, professional practices and agriculture, in which he has a particular interest. Within his client base he also has a number of American owned subsidiary companies operating in the UK. Peter along with his team specialises in the implementation and utilisation of computerised accounting systems for the firm's clients.

Chris Connor
Corporate Tax Director
cconnor@streetsweb.co.uk

Chris is a Chartered Tax Adviser, specialising in corporate tax matters. His work with clients is concerned with the preparation of more complex tax returns. Based on a thorough understanding of the various tax instruments applied to business and their owners, Chris is able to provide advice on tax planning and tax mitigation, tax advice and assistance with planning on mergers, acquisitions and due diligence.

Richard Couchman
Tax Partner
rcouchman@streetsweb.co.uk

Richard has been in practice since 1988, having originally worked in the audit and accounts team, he decided to concentrate on tax in 1993 and qualified in this field in 1996. Richard has experience in dealing with all tax matters and his main role as tax partner within the firm is to deal with any technical tax queries that should arise.

Jonathan Day
Partner
jday@streetsweb.co.uk

Jonathan has a client base reflecting the diversity of businesses throughout the East of England. His sector experience and interests cover manufacturing, professional services, technology and environmental businesses. Jonathan's professional interests include corporate finance deals involving company restructures and growth strategies for SMEs and owner managed businesses.

Ben Halstead
Director
bhalstead@streetsweb.co.uk

Ben is an audit and accounts director and qualified as a chartered accountant with the firm in 2004. He is now responsible for servicing some of the firm's larger clients including international groups and plcs. Ben takes an active interest in understanding client's businesses in terms of both risk profile and internal systems and considers that the audit function should add value rather than be seen as a necessary evil.
