The Chancellor of the Exchequer, Rishi Sunak will unveil the Autumn Budget and public sector spending review on Wednesday 27th October.

Mr Sunak will provide details of how he plans to balance the books over the next year and details of a three-year spending review.

The Chancellor said the spending review would “set out how we will continue to invest in public services and drive growth while keeping the public finances on a sustainable path”.

Our presentation will be led by Corporate Tax Partner Luke Prout, Financial Planner Sam Tindale and Tax Manager Kelly Goodchild.

Our presentation will include:

- A review of the announcements made by the Chancellor
- Guidance on the impact of changes for individuals and businesses
- An indication as to the steps to be taken to deal with the announcements

All those who register their place will receive a digital copy of our free Budget Report which includes a summary of the announcements and changes as well as a recording of the presentation event.
