Since 2008, billions of pounds worth of extra tax has been clawed back and the reach of 'Connect' is ever growing.

HMRC is set with ambitious targets and is therefore continually investing in new technology and strategies to maximise its tax revenue.

HMRC are using a piece of highly efficient software which is accessing and trawling through your financial information right now.

The 'Connect' system is scouring vast databanks to unearth discrepancies between taxpayers and businesses, income, assets and transactions. However, sometimes they may not be correct and select the wrong targets.

We are constantly vigilant and stay up to date with the latest tax advances but you are still at risk of an investigation at any time.

HMRC are conducting a record number of Tax Investigations and compliance checks.

The Government is faced with record levels of deficit. As it works to fill a public finance black hole, it has allocated significant resource to HMRC to yield increased tax revenue by carrying out compliance checks.

We have seen an increase in the number of enquiries raised on tax returns and the tax authorities now have more powers than ever to investigate UK businesses.

Are you at risk of a Tax Investigation?

Yes, if you submit a tax return, HMRC may investigate you at any time.

Even if you have done nothing wrong, many Tax Investigations are conducted at random so you are still at risk of being investigated.

What could an investigation involve?

Some investigations will involve a detailed examination of a specific item on a tax return others may extend to a full review of all individual or business affairs.

HMRC has the power to inspect business documents and assets at your premises, can ask for documents and information, make unannounced inspections and go back up to six years to investigate matters.

When HMRC investigates it can drag on for a year or more, creating mounting costs and rocketing stress levels.

We recommend that all of our clients should consider subscribing to the Tax Enquiry Fee Protection Service we are offering.

The Tax Enquiry Fee Protection Service will pay for our professional fees should HMRC target you for an investigation.

Should you be subject to a Tax Investigation, you will have peace of mind from the Tax Enquiry Fee Protection Service, knowing we will act for you.

Subscribing to the Tax Enquiry Fee Protection Service costs less than you think. A small cost now could save you thousands of pounds in the future.

The Service will pay our professional fees that result from most types of HMRC enquiry or investigation (full details are listed on the Service Summary).

The stress and cost of an investigation can be considerable and our expertise can save you time and money in the long run.

Unlike some fee protection products that appoint their own advisors the Service ensures that we can continue representing you. We believe that we know you and your business best and we want to be there for you when you need us most.

The Service is backed by an insurance policy from Professional Fee Protection Limited (PfP®) which we have taken out in our own name.

A Limited Company was selected for a full enquiry into all books and records.

HMRC reviewed every record they could before making the accusation that £12,000 of tax was under paid. The Company were adamant nothing was wrong.

A drawn out investigation eventually ended with HMRC agreeing there was no further tax due. Costs of over £3,500 were paid under the Tax Enquiry Fee Protection Service.

A recent HMRC crackdown brought in £29bn of unpaid taxes and HMRC now employ over 25,000 compliance staff.

5 reasons why we think it is important to take out protection
